

I am a recent subscriber to XM Radio. As a contractor, I drive frequently between jobsites and schedule work based on the weather. XM Radio's local traffic and weather reports are frequent and thorough, providing me with vital information. The same cannot be said of most local radio stations. XM radio is simply providing us with an additional choice which is a vital part of our free market. Please do not allow these lobbyists to bully competition out of the picture.